

An Appeal.

A letter has been sent by the President of the Eugenics Education Society to all its members, pointing out that at the moment there are very considerable difficulties in carrying on the work of the Society as hitherto owing to lack of funds. A few members of the Society have already responded to the President's appeal to give a donation for immediate needs or voluntarily to increase their subscriptions materially. Further Mr. R. A. Fisher has made a most generous offer in the following terms. He will give a donation of ten guineas provided that twenty-four other members each subscribe a like sum during the course of the year. Already one donation of ten guineas has been given as a result of Mr. Fisher's offer, and it is hoped that the necessary number of offers may be forthcoming.

Correspondence.

The following letter has been received from the Honorary Secretary of the Anglo-American University Library for Central Europe:—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EUGENICS REVIEW.

Sir,—In connection with the above Library, we are endeavouring to supply the various university libraries on the continent with the scientific and other journals they urgently need.

Among the periodicals for which we have received a pressing demand, the EUGENICS REVIEW is frequently mentioned, and I very much hope that you will be good enough to publish this letter in your columns, so that any of your readers having copies of your journal from 1914 onwards, may hear of our appeal. Any numbers of the periodical which readers may feel they can dispense with, will be most gratefully welcomed.

The Library is entirely non-political and non-sectarian, its sole object being to enable humanity at large to benefit in the future, as it has done in the past, from the research of European scholars. Such research has been brought almost to a standstill from the fact that European centres of learning have been cut off since 1914, first of all by the blockade and more recently by the exceedingly unfavourable position of the foreign exchanges, from English and American thought.

I fervently hope that some of your readers may be able to help in supplying the literary needs of Central Europe. A copy of the prospectus of the Library will gladly be sent to anyone desiring a fuller account of its work and objects.

B. M. HEADICAR, Hon. Secretary.

The Society has undertaken to supply four complete sets, but as it would appear that the demand for copies of the REVIEW has been considerable, it is probable that further sets would be acceptable to the Anglo-American University Library. It is, therefore, hoped that any members having spare sets with which they are able to dispense would send them direct to the Hon. Secretary, London School of Economics, Clare Market, W.C.2.
